

Spring Walk 29th April – All Welcome!

A late spring ramble to the Ashridge estate in Hertfordshire on will take place on Saturday 27th April 2019. We will take the train from Bedford and other stations on the Marston Vale Line to Tring via Bletchley and walk from there to Aldbury village and on to the Monument cafe where a wide selection of snacks is available in the outdoor seating area. N.B. no picnics are allowed on the premises, although log seating is available nearby. It may be possible to climb the Bridgewater Monument via the internal staircase to obtain a treetop view of the area. The walk will be approx. 5 - 6 miles long and will involve one steep climb. Please catch the 09.29 from Bedford and 10.17 connection (Southern Service) from Bletchley to Tring. Our walk leader, Richard will meet you at Tring station at 10.34 on the platform.

To see the walk visit http://chilternsociety.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2016/10/Ashridge Drovers Walk.pdf